Habakkuk 2:2–5

Listening Guide · Week 5 · October 11, 2026

Where We Are

- Habakkuk has waited for God's answer. Yahweh now speaks about the unrighteous, the righteous, and the relentless.

I. Judgment Is Coming to the Unrighteous (2:2–3, 4a)

- God tells Habakkuk to write the vision and make it _____. His warning is meant to be understood and heeded.
- The written word stands as a witness: when it happens, people can know that Yahweh said it and Habakkuk spoke His word.
- The vision awaits its _____ time. God has not given Habakkuk a date, but He has guaranteed its fulfillment.
- If it seems slow, _____ for it. God's timing does not make His word uncertain.
- The _____ person is puffed up with himself; his soul is not upright. He trusts his own judgment above God's word.
- Comparing ourselves with other people cannot make us righteous. Our standard is the holiness of _____.

II. Life Will Come to the Righteous (2:4b)

- The righteous shall live by _____. They take God at His word and live in dependence on Him.
- In Jeremiah 21:8–9, God told those facing the siege to _____ to the Chaldeans and live. Believing His warning required a response.
- Our confidence for salvation rests in _____, rather than our own works. He gives us the righteousness we cannot earn.
- Jesus bore the _____ of the law for us. We receive God's promise through faith. (Galatians 3:13–14)
- Faith produces faithful obedience. Hebrews 10:36–38 calls us to _____ when trusting God becomes costly.
