Habakkuk 3:1–16

Listening Guide · Week 7 · November 8, 2026

Where We Are

• God has answered Habakkuk, but Babylon is still coming. The prophet moves from questioning God to praying, remembering, and waiting on Him.

I. Request His Mercy (3:1–2)

• Pray God's _____ back to Him. Faith takes what God has said seriously enough to pray it.

• Ask God to make His work known in the _____ of the years, not only at the end.

• "In wrath remember _____." We need compassion, not merely an answer that favors us.

II. Remember His Majesty (3:3–7)

• God's coming from Teman and Paran recalls His faithfulness in the _____ and wilderness.

• The mountains scatter when God stands. His presence puts our _____ in perspective.

• Remember God's _____, not just your fear. His past works give us reason to trust Him now.

III. Rest in His Might (3:8–15)

• The storm, sea, and weapons portray God as a victorious _____. Read the poetry in its biblical setting.

• His power serves His saving purpose: "You went out for the _____ of your people" (3:13).

• His people are not _____. God sees both the oppressor's cruelty and the suffering of His people.

IV. Rely on His Promise (3:16)

• Habakkuk's body _____, yet he waits. Fear in our bodies does not mean faith is absent.

• Faith can tremble and still _____. Our confidence rests in God, not in how strong we feel.

• Waiting is _____, not inactivity. Keep doing what God has made clear while you trust His timing.

This Week

• Name one work of God you will remember, one prayer for mercy you will pray, and one faithful step you will take while you wait.
